Album notes:

'Love' is One Minus One's fifth full-length album. Being the result of a deep introspective approach, the album's songwriting resembles a process of psychoanalytical self-indulgence. Screams from the past push forward the search for consciousness in a chaotic surroundings of long lost dreams and now useless obsessions. 'Finding a new bottom beneath one's feet' could be the best-suited sentence to describe the album's artistic thrust. And towards the end of 'Love', despair will enter into hope and resistance to self-abandonment.

Single notes (Addict Pt. 2):

Addict Pt. is the first single from One Minus One's new album 'Love': eerie, sinister, and suitable for mouth percussionists. Keep it simple, keep it loud.

Artist's notes:

One Minus One is a one-person shoegaze hub from Aachen, Germany. The project started operating in 2010, having its mainboard installed at Dark Loft Studio, somewhere in the Belgian-Dutch-German border region.

Songs are never finished, they are composed to take a life of their own. Leaning onto this credo, playing a live concert for One Minus One means communicating with all sorts of sound devices: acoustic guitars, effect pedals, analogue synthesizers and loop pedals. The aim of this ongoing interaction process is somewhat contradictory: keeping its results open as long as possible while finding a suitable sound structure that lasts for a day or, maybe, a week.
